

SMITH QUIT TO
JOIN THIRD PARTYCommissioner of Corporations
Will Aid Roosevelt.

HIS DEPUTY TO SUCCEED HIM

Retiring Official Will in All Probability Take an Active Part in the Campaign, Discussing Corporations With Particular Reference to Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Washington, July 17.—Herbert Knox Smith has resigned as commissioner of corporations to join the forces of Theodore Roosevelt and the new third party. He will be succeeded in all probability by Luther Conant, Jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y., the present deputy commissioner of corporations, who is described as a distinctly administration exponent. The change will become effective on the close of business Thursday, July 18.

Mr. Smith will go to New York for a conference with Colonel Roosevelt on Friday when his political plans will be mapped out. He probably will take an active part in the campaign, discussing corporations with particular reference to the Sherman anti-trust law. He admitted that he advised the former president of his contemplated action and tentatively discussed the future, at his conference with Mr. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay last week.

Mr. Smith declined to discuss his official relations with President Taft, although he added that his silence was not necessarily to be interpreted as meaning he had been restricted through a disagreement of ideas.

Personal Friend of Colonel.

A close personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Smith was a member of the "tennis cabinet" during the previous administration. His friends assert that the commissioner was displeased over the publication during the pre-convention campaign of the International Harvester correspondence in which Mr. Smith's letters to President Roosevelt against the prosecution of the corporation under the Sherman law at that time figured prominently.

In his letter of resignation Mr. Smith frankly advised President Taft of his intention to join the new party. He said:

"I have the honor to offer my resignation as commissioner of corporations, in the department of commerce and labor, to take effect at the close of business July 18, 1912.

"I do so because I intend to support the progressive movement and the new progressive party. That movement includes the principles that I believe in and that I have earnestly tried to further, so far as I could, during my term of federal service.

Believes in New Party.

"I feel that the new party represents these principles more directly and with more promise and power of performance than either the Republican or Democratic parties.

"I trust that you will pardon this expression of my personal views; it seems only courteous that I should state to you the reasons for my action.

"I wish to retire from office as soon as practicable, and I believe that by July 18 I can so close up my official work as to leave the bureau with no substantial lapse in its operations."

Mr. Smith is a resident of Hartford, Conn., where he practiced law and became a member of the Connecticut house of representatives for one term. He succeeded James R. Garfield.

HOUSE PASSES BEALL BILL

Provides Penalty for Dealing in Cotton Futures.

Washington, July 17.—Heavy penalties for gambling in cotton futures are provided in the Beall bill passed by the house by a vote of 95 to 25. The bill will go to the senate.

Efforts were made to amend the bill to include provisions prohibiting gambling in grains, but these failed. The supporters of the bill asserted that the efficiency of the measure would be impaired by adding complicated administrative features.

The bill would prohibit all dealing in cotton futures and fix heavy penalties for purchase or sale of cotton not actually in existence. Heavy fines would be imposed for the use of the mails or telegraph for the dissemination of cotton speculation information.

Six Killed in Mine Blast.

Richmond, Va., July 17.—Two white men and four negroes were killed in an explosion in the mines of the Gayton Coal company fifteen miles from here. Three other negroes were injured. The men were at work when a charge of blasting powder prematurely exploded.

Clapp W. Jump Kansas.

Washington, July 17.—Senator Moses E. Clapp is to aid Colonel Roosevelt in the Kansas campaign in the effort to have Roosevelt presidential electors selected in the primaries which are to be held on July 24. Senator Clapp will leave for the West in a few days and probably will remain in the state until the day before the primaries.

AUGUST BELMONT.

Admits Contributing Quarter
Million to Campaign Fund.

DONATED QUARTER MILLION

August Belmont Admits Giving $250,000 for 1904 Campaign.

Washington, July 17.—A quarter of a million dollars was the estimate which August Belmont, testifying before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions, placed upon his contributions to the Democratic national campaign in 1904. He was not sure that was the sum, but was "satisfied to let it go at that."

"My habit has been that if I feel responsible for anything my obligation is not measured by dollars and cents," said Mr. Belmont when Senator Paynter asked if his large contribution embarrassed him. Mr. Belmont was a member of the campaign executive committee that year. Mr. Belmont told first of advancing $50,000 to the Democratic national committee. He said he had been reimbursed $42,000.

SENATE REBUKES
PRESIDENT TAFTAdopts Resolution Declaring
Him Meddlesome.

Washington, July 17.—The senate indirectly rebuked President Taft for his course in connection with the Lorimer case. Once blocked from a vote by the Archibald impeachment proceedings, a resolution, battle-scarred in a protracted, bitter debate, finally was adopted 35 to 28, denouncing "any attempt on the part of a president," to exercise the power of his office to influence a vote on questions within the senate's exclusive jurisdiction.

The resolution was originally framed by Senator Bailey who had arraigned President Taft, asserting that he had been "officious and meddlesome," in endeavoring to line up regular Republican senators in the Lorimer case.

MINNESOTA PIONEER DIES

Son of Early Settler Follows Wife to Grave in Two Weeks.

St. Paul, July 17.—Vital Guerin, Jr., whose family name is associated with the earliest history of St. Paul, is dead at his home in New Canada at the age of eighty years. His death followed that of his wife, Mary Guerin, by about two weeks.

Mr. Guerin was the son of that Vital Guerin who gave to the city of St. Paul the land on which the city hall and court house now stands and whose name is inscribed on the historical tablet in the court house.

RESPIRE FOR BEEF TRUST

Indications Are That Democrats Are Too Busy to Begin Probe.

Washington, July 17.—Postponement of the House judiciary committee's investigation of the so called beef trust was indicated when the committee met to consider a program.

Other work under way, including the impeachment of Judge Archibald of the commerce court, the investigation of charges against Federal Judge Hanford of Seattle, and the workmen's compensation act, promises to delay the trust investigation which the committee intends to prosecute under the Henry resolution.

Deitz Pardon Hearing Date.

Hayward, Wis., July 17.—District Attorney Samuel J. Williams of Sawyer county has received a summons asking for the pardon of John F. Deitz, now confined in the state penitentiary at Waupun. The move is by Mrs. John F. Deitz, through her attorneys, Naber of Mayville, Wis.; Malone of Beaver Dam and McKenna of Fond du Lac. The hearing will be up before Governor McGovern on Aug. 15.

HOUSE MAY ELECT
NEXT PRESIDENTProcedure if No Candidate Has Majority of Electoral Vote.

CONSTITUTION'S PROVISION.

Majority of the States Required to Elect—No Party Majority in the Present House—Garner Thinks Taft Might Carry the East, Wilson the South and Roosevelt the West.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 17.—[Special.]—Several months ago in these special calls attention to the curious situation which might arise in case there should be a third party and the election thrown into the house of representatives. Now politicians are beginning to wonder just what would happen in case that kind of a situation should arise.

We are approaching it. Two regular parties have held their conventions and nominated their candidates. A third party has called its convention and will nominate candidates. No one can tell how many electoral votes will be cast for any one of the three, but we all know that in case neither has a majority the house will elect.

No Majority in the House.

But the important point is that the constitution requires a majority of the states to elect by the house. And there is no party majority in the present house for the reason that certain delegations are equally divided, such as Maine, Nebraska, Rhode Island and New Mexico. Each party has twenty-two states, and four states are equally divided. Of course certain states might come over to one party or the other, but if there is a deadlock none of the three men receiving electoral votes can be chosen.

What Happens?

The great question, then, is, What happens? As I have already explained, the senate by a majority vote chooses from the two candidates for vice president having the highest number of electoral votes a vice president. On the 4th of March, no one having been chosen president, the vice president becomes president. When I first discovered this peculiar situation I said that the nomination on the Republican ticket for vice president became important. If a man was selected for whom the progressives in the senate could vote he might be elected. Is Jim Sherman that man? We will know the answer when the electoral votes are known.

Garner's Suggestion.

Congressman John Garner of Texas thinks that it is quite likely that the campaign will develop into a three-cornered contest. "It looks as if Taft might carry the east, Wilson the south and Roosevelt the west," said the Texan. "In that case I think we could get together on some one in the house."

A Request Bill Scores.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina introduced by request, which means it was done for accommodation, a bill prohibiting the interstate transportation of pictures of prizefighters. It went to that well established graveyard, the judiciary committee, but Senator Bacon reported the bill, and it passed the senate. It is expected to pass the house and become a law. Thus it often happens that some one gets through a measure on the "by request" route.

Want Uncle Sam's Seal.

There has been a perfect flood of bills introduced in congress this session for the incorporation of various organizations and societies. They include organizations for art, letters, literature, history, science, hospitals, schools, academies of design, chambers of commerce, etc. It is evident that these various organizations desire the stamp of Uncle Sam with which to go before the country and the world.

Size of Apple Barrels.

You might think that the size of apple barrels was no concern of the United States government, yet there is a bill seriously pushed and considered which regulates the size of apple barrels in which apples are shipped over interstate lines. The length of the staves, the size of the barrel in various dimensions, are prescribed, as well as the mark which shall be placed upon it. Evidently the apple growers are having trouble, just as many other producers, by the faking of men who are trying to beat purchasers of apples.

Clayton's Clearness.

Henry D. Clayton, chairman of the judiciary committee of the house, is one of the men in that body who can clearly and accurately state a given proposition so that the house can understand it, and, what is more, he has voice enough to make the members hear it even if they are inclined to be interested in their own conversation more than in the business of the house.

Getting His Share.

Senator Myers of Montana is getting his full share of congressional work. "When I was elected," said the Montana senator, "I thought it would be fine. I thought I could spend the winters in Washington and the summers in Montana, just as the rich people did. But I have been fifteen months in the senate and have spent fourteen months in Washington, and if the Democrats win the coming election I suppose we will have an extra session next summer."

Australia.

Australia is the largest island in the world. Its area is nearly three-fourths that of Europe.

WILL MAKE APPOINTMENTS

Rumor Says Taft Will Name Ohioans
for Important Posts.

Washington, July 17.—With the semi-official announcement that President Taft will appoint four Ohio Republicans to important government posts in Washington, it became apparent that one of the first moves in the fight the Taft leaders are making for the president's re-election will be an attempt to strengthen their relations with the Republican state organizations throughout the country.

Taft leaders stated that the third party would be fought through the Republican state organizations. Assurances have been received at the White House from Republicans in many states that they will not join the third party, and the recognition of state organizations, the Taft leaders here believe, will influence still others to remain with the old party and thus aid his campaign.

ATTORNEY RESENTS
OFFENSIVE NAMEAged Witness Hits Son of Judge
Hanford for Insult.

Seattle, July 17.—After John T. Whitlock, an aged lawyer, had testified before the house judiciary subcommittee that he had seen Judge Hanford drunk on a crowded street of Seattle one afternoon, Whitlock was followed into the hall by Ned Hanford, son of the judge, who called Whitlock an offensive name.

Whitlock struck the young man in the face, returned to the court room, went on the stand, and told his experience.

Frank Burpee, a manufacturer of salmon canning machinery, testified that in 1902, while damage awards in a suit decided against Burpee for infringements of salmon canning patents were being considered by Judge Hanford, witness was given an opportunity to buy a salmon can topper invented by the judge. Witness said that opportunity was presented by his counsel, Evan C. McCord, a lawyer who figured previously in the subcommittee of the investigation.

LATHAM TRAMPLED TO DEATH

Famous Aviator Killed by Buffalo
While Hunting in Africa.

Paris, July 17.—Hubert Latham, the famous Anglo-French aviator, was killed June 7 by a wild buffalo during a hunting expedition in the French Sudan.

Latham was out with a number of natives in the forest when he shot and wounded a buffalo, which immediately gored and trampled him to death.

His death occurred in the Chari river near the Bahr Es Salamat, practically in the center of the French Sudan.

SEEK TVEITMOE'S EVIDENCE

Darrow Defense Would Learn What He Told Grand Jury.

Los Angeles, July 17.—Anticipating the early appearance of Olaf A. Tveitmoe, the San Francisco labor leader, as a witness in the Darrow bribery trial, the defense made a determined but futile attempt to obtain a copy of Tveitmoe's testimony before the grand jury here last February.

It was the only break in a day otherwise given over to hearing witnesses attack the veracity of Bert H. Franklin, the confessed corruptor of jurors in the McNamara case.

The action of the defense brought out the first public knowledge that Tveitmoe had appeared before the county grand jury subsequent to the indictment of Mr. Darrow, to explain the cashing of the $10,000 check alleged by the prosecution to have constituted the McNamara defense corruption fund.

Ask Dissolution of Trust.

Washington, July 17.—Members of the house Stanley steel trust investigating committee have practically agreed to recommend the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation in their report, and endorse the government suit against it.

SENATE BEGINS
TRIAL OF JUDGEMAN UNDER ARREST
NAMES MURDERERSNew York Police Get Confession
in Sensational Case.

New York, July 17.—Through the alleged confession of a man under arrest, the names of seven men are believed to be in the hands of the police as participants in the sensational killing of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, just as he was presumably about to make important additions to his recent disclosure of alleged partnership between police officials and members of the gambling fraternity.

According to District Attorney Whitman, Rosenthal was about to name gamblers who could corroborate his assertions regarding police collusion with men of his calling.

During the day three men were arrested in connection with the murder of Rosenthal. Louis Libbey, partner owner, it is alleged, of the automobile containing the party of men who shot the gambler, was one of the trio. The police declare they are assured he was the driver of the motor car and have charged him with homicide. His partner in ownership of a garage, William Shapiro, is another prisoner.

Archibald Summoned to Appear Before High Court.

HOUSE URGES SPEEDY ACTION

Solons Willing to Accede to Wishes of Jurist and His Attorneys to Delay the Case Until Fall—First Case of the Kind Before Senate Since Trial of Judge Swayne in 1905.

Washington, July 17.—The trial of Judge Robert W. Archibald of the commerce court, accused of acceptance of credit and favors from litigants before his court, is under way.

The senate was sworn in as a court of impeachment and a summons for the accused judge calling him to its bar on July 19 was issued, Judge Archibald is in Scranton. The sergeant-at-arms of the senate will serve the papers on him there.

At 12:30 p. m. Friday the court of impeachment will reconvene with the accused jurist present and determine if the trial shall proceed at once or go over until fall, perhaps to a special session in November. Members of the senate have consulted with the judge and his counsel, and are prepared to meet his wishes to have the trial go over until fall.

The house managers, who appear as prosecutors, will oppose such a continuance. Several members of the senate are prepared to urge speedy action. The managers of the senate will settle the question, and will agree, it is believed, to a recess of the court until early in November. If a recess is not taken a special session of congress probably will be asked.

Attended with the solemnity which marks an occasion where a federal officer is called to account for "high crimes and misdemeanors" against the government, the senate converted itself into a "high court for the trial of impeachment."

Clayton Reads the Demand.

Representative Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the house committee of impeachment managers, read the demand for a summons for the judge.

"We, as managers of the house of representatives, demand that a process be issued for Robert W. Archibald," said Mr. Clayton, "and that he be required to appear at the bar of the senate and answer the articles of impeachment."

An order for his appearance Monday was offered by Senator Clark of Wyoming, chairman of the senate committee on judiciary, and was objected to by Mr. Clayton and Senator Bacon. Friday was then fixed.

Less than an hour was taken up with the organization of the court of impeachment and the adoption of the formal orders for the appearance of defendant and witnesses.

The trial of Judge Archibald for alleged connection with business deals in which it is charged he appeared as the beneficiary of favors from railroads having litigation before his court, is the first impeachment case before the senate since Judge Swayne of Florida was tried in 1906. Judge Swayne was acquitted.

MRS. MORROW DENIES GUILT

Chicago Woman Says Husband Attempted Suicide Three Times.

Chicago, July 17.—Mrs. Rana B. Morrow, charged with the murder of her husband, Charles B. Morrow, an inventor, took the witness stand in her own behalf.

She appeared nervous and began her story in a faltering voice.

Mrs. Morrow said the first she knew of her husband's death was on the morning of Dec. 28 when his body was found on the rear porch of their home.

"My husband attempted to commit suicide three times," said Mrs. Morrow. "Once was with gas, and I saved his life by going to his room and turning off the gas myself. The next time was a year later when he again turned on the gas and I rescued him. I nursed him for nearly a month before he was well."

"The third time he tried to shoot himself and I took the revolver away from him. He occupied a room on a different floor from mine, because he desired to sleep near his work room."

She admitted having had a dispute with her husband the night he was shot.

FLOOD VISITS NEW MEXICO

Irrigation Dam Breaks, Destroying Crops on Many Farms.

Santa Fe, N. M., July 17.—The lower dam of the Hondo irrigation project was swept out by a terrific cloudburst, a twenty-foot wall of water sweeping down the narrow canyon and out on the mesa, destroying all crops, wiping out farms, fences, corrals and small buildings.

So far as known no lives were lost.

Hitchcock Will Testify.

Washington, July 17.—Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee in 1908, will testify before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions to President Taft's first campaign fund.

J. S. Murphy, known as "Shep," has announced his candidacy for republican ticket. Murphy, running on the republican ticket, should win in almost any community.

Staples is out with a bonus to the ple of five townships of Todd and the southern townships of Cass are favor-

Forty cents per bushel is predicted as the price of the new crop of potatoes within a month. This will be tough on the producer who was looking for a dollar market, but the consumer is not making any loud noise in opposition to the reduction in price.

On an income of $10 a week a Chicago laborer who some years ago came from Germany has supported his family consisting of himself, wife and three children. The children have been reared and given a common school education, and for seven years the family has deposited $2 per week with a building and loan association and have $837 to their credit. Careful habits have made them contented with no complaint at the high cost of living.

Some of the newspapers have put James A. Peterson, candidate for the U. S. senate, in bad by announcing that he would support Taft. Peterson will make the race as a republican, probably against Knute Nelson, and he wants all his progressive friends to support him as well as the republican rank and file.
Just how he is going to reconcile both factions when he expresses himself against the third party movement and refuses to come out for the republican nominee is what bothers his friends.

The call for the third party state convention is out and is signed by 16 of the 24 delegates from Minnesota to the republican national convention. The notice is conspicuous by the absence of the name of Moses E. Clapp which does not appear on the call, although his right hand man, W. W. Rice, is down as one of those who yearns for a third party.

The convention will be held in St.
Paul July 30 and will not be a delegate affair but will be open to any and all electors of whatever political faith who desire to join in the Roosevelt movement.

The new corrupt practice ac. is keeping the candidates for office going. Attorney General Smith has issued an opinion in which he holds that candidates for congress must comply with the state law on all points. Placing the candidate's name or announcement on anything of value, for distribution, is held to be illegal, as this amounts to giving an inducement to the voter, and is corrupt. This applies to the candidate who asked if it was permissible to give away lead pencils bearing his name. Paid newspaper announcements, it is held, must be preceded with a statement of the amount paid for them, the name and address of the author and of the man making the announcement. The law, Mr.
Smith says, prohibits the giving of cigars as an inducement for votes and this applies to promiscuous distribution of cigars. In every case where a candidate gives away a cigar, the question of fact is raised whether he does it as an act of friendship or to influence a vote.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness,
and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for

SOO LINE BACKS UP TRACTION LINE

Build From Minneapolis to Anoka 18 Miles and Thence Later on to the North

CONNECT WITH CUYUNA RANGE

Brainerd Stands Good Show of Getting the Electric Railway Connection Desired

The way railway building is carried on nowadays is conclusive evidence that it does not take years to do things. When the Dispatch voiced the needs of the people for an electric railway many thought it was a visionary matter and that probably after years of deliberation such a line would be ultimately established.

But events have crowded in faster than first supposed by the average oldest inhabitant of Brainerd and today the Soo announces, without blare of trumpets, the completion of its new Minneapolis-Duluth railway line and the commencement of a traction line from Minneapolis north to Anoka.

A few days ago, says the Minneapolis Tribune, the announcement was made of the incorporation of the Minneapolis and Northern Railway company, and the awarding of a contract for the construction of 18 miles of road from the northern limits of the city of Minneapolis to Anoka. This line, it was announced, will be a traction line, equipped with gas-electric cars, similar to the Dan Patch cars. The right-of-way on the east bank of the river has been secured, it is said, and the contract calls for the completion of the road to Anoka by October 1. E. G. Potter, of Minneapolis, is president and general manager of the new company.

It is now said by men in touch with Minneapolis railway affairs that the Soo is the real power behind this new traction line, and that while the road will first be operated as a traction line, later it will be made a steam road and that from Anoka it will be extended north into the Mille Lacs country.

It would strike the Broomfield-Duluth line of the Soo at Onamia or some point on the south shore of Mille Lacs lake, and thence go on to a connection with the Cuyuna Range branch and then to the Thief River Falls-Duluth line.

The Mille Lacs country is now served by the Soo, the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific. For the Minneapolis terminus the Minneapolis-Anoka traction line, it is said, will use the Soo rails into the downtown section.

L. C. Spooner, of Morris, candidate for the republican nomination of governor, will speak at the opera house in this city on Friday evening of this week, July 19. ## PINE RIVER TURNS OUT FOR SPECIAL

Special to Dispatch:

Pine River, Minn., July 16—Between 700 and 800 people turned out to see the Duluth Trade Excursion as it arrived at Pine River Tuesday morning. Business men headed by George J. Silk, the editor of the Pine River Sentinel, distributed folders advertising the resources of Pine River and the surrounding country. The Third Regiment band played concert selections and airs of a lighter vein and the whole Duluth delegation caked walked to the entire satisfaction and edification of the Pine River people. After Pine River got through boosting itself, the Duluth men took hold and proceeded to distribute advertising matter and to convince this section of Cass county as to the merits of Duluth-made products.

THAT CUYUNA GAME

Editor E. W. Zingg Writes Four Page Letter Describing Sunday's Game With Crosby

The Dispatch is in receipt of a four page letter from E. W. Zingg, the editor of the Cuyuna Range Miner, describing the recent game played Sunday between the Crosby second team and the Cuyuna nin, Cuyuna winning by an 8 to 1 score. Condensed, the story reads:

Leon Thomas pitched for Cuyuna and did wonderful work with the ball, which is duly evidenced by his striking out 16 Crosby league players. Big Ike Faucet also showed up well, but was only able to fan six Cuyuna batters. The Cuyuna men had a regular swat fest and slammed the ball all over the lot.

The remarkable features of the game were the pitching of Faucet and Thomas. R. Bush, in right field made a spectacular running catch that shows he is a comer. Home runs were made by Charles and Rich Bush. Dean White did excellent work at third. Gerald Petraborg, of Aitkin, was at the receiving end.

In this connection we feel justified in mentioning that Ed. Levant, of Brainerd, presented the team with a latest style catcher's mask, which is more than appreciated and will be reciprocated in due form. Ed. is a sport of the right type and you may rest assured that he knows when to make a sacrifice hit as he has enough calibre about him to get results.

AT THE EMPRESS

Improvements Made at This Popular Little Play House

Manager Laymon of the Empress is determined to have one of the prettiest little picture houses in the state, and if knowledge of the show business and an expenditure of money will help there is no doubt but that he will make good.

He has now contracted with the Crown Scenic Studio of Chicago, for the installation of what is known as the Crown projecting screen, upon which the pictures will hereafter be thrown. This improvement is installed at a cost of $110. But Mr. Laymon feels that the patrons of the theatre are entitled to the best. The use of this screen does away entirely with all glare which is often found in pictures on an ordinary screen and makes it possible for a person to enjoy the pictures just as much if seated in the front row as if farther back, as it causes positively no eye strain. The new screen brings out the perfected depth and tone of the picture to such an extent that one can easily imagine they are being thrown on white velvet, to such a nicety does the photography blend with the combinations of colors in the screen. Manager Laymon is adding a fine scenic curtain. E. Merchant is here in behalf of his firm superintending the installation of these improvements.

OTHER TOWNS BID FOR THE PICNIC

Walker and Detroit are Hot-Footed After the Merchants and Clerks' Picnic

DATE IS SET FOR AUGUST 7TH Committee to go to Deerwood Friday to Examine Into Arrangements at That Point

When the Brainerd baseball team or the merchants and clerks of the city select a town to have a ball game or a picnic, it means something in a financial way to the towns so selected.

The coming merchants and clerks picnic will be held on Wednesday, August 7. A committee consisting of Mayor H. P. Dunn, Dr. Werner Hemstead and Ed. Levant will visit Deerwood Friday to see what provisions and arrangements that city has to offer for holding a picnic within its confines.

Other towns appreciate a visit from Brainerd people. Mayor Dunn is in receipt of a letter from the Detroit Commercial club which has offered free fishing tackle, free transportation to the lake near by and a free auto ride of from one to one and a half hours to the merchants and clerks if they will hold their picnic in Detroit.

The town of Walker wants the picnic and will offer special rates on the amusements enjoyed by summer visitors. Other towns will soon be heard from in regard to the picnic.

When Mayor Dunn, Dr. Hemstead and Mr. Levant visit Deerwood, they will know just what other towns have to offer in the way of inducements and they will be able to do some advantageous bargaining in the way of securing good picnic grounds, excursion rates and other attractions in case they decide on Deerwood as the place for the picnic.

Yochum-Pfremmer

The marriage of William Yochum, of Longville, Cass county, to Miss Lu-Verna Pfremmer of this city, took place at noon today at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pfremmer, West Brainerd. A large company of relatives and intimate friends witnessed the wedding, including Miss Dora Yochum and Mr. Sherman Yochum, sister and brother of the groom.

The bride was attired in a dress of white serge and embroidered net and wore a bridal veil, being assisted by Miss Rose Farrou who wore a dress of pink voile, each carrying a handsome bouquet of white elder blossoms. Mr. Yochum was attended by his brother, Sherman.

The short ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church was used, with the Rev. Charles Fox Davis as the officiating clergyman.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the company. The couple were the recipients of many handsome wedding presents. They left on the afternoon train for Pine River, from thence to Longville, at which place they will make their future home, both parties having farm land there.

The bride is a well known Crow Wing county school teacher, having taught during the past eight years. Mr. Yochum has been a resident of Longville for several years and is well known there. The Dispatch joins with their friends in wishing for them a happy future.

Recital

Nearly one hundred friends assembled at the beautiful Johnstone home last evening to listen to Miss Oriana Bernice Glass as presented in piano recital by Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone. It was indeed a most inspiring and delightful evening of piano music.

Mrs. Johnstone has had Miss Glass as a pupil for nearly two years. The beautiful rendering of the program in all its variety of composition, speaks well of the excellent work of her teacher.

Miss Glass interpreted every number in a very artistic and masterful way. Whether it were the triumph and despair of the Russian people as pictured in the opening Prelude or the beauty of the "Butterfly Elude" and the woodland sketch "To a Wild Rose," that she was to give us, they were equally well done. We feel that Miss Glass is a very promising young pianist and we are proud of her. During the past year she has begun teaching and expects to continue her work. We are so glad, that in the present day, music expresses more and more the personal feeling and has the idea of painting a musical picture. By the tonal medium the listener can conjure up a mental picture of what the composer had in mind. To help us do this better with the different numbers of last evening's program, Mrs. W. H. Gemmel wrote the descriptive analysis of each number. This added much to the beauty and enjoyment of program. The descriptive analyses were read by Mrs. Henry I. Cohen in a very pleasing and telling manner.

The program with a word of analyses was as follows: Prelude, Op. 3, No. 2, Rachmaninoff. Rachmaninoff, one of the greatest Russian composers since Tchaikovsky, pictures in this prelude the proud and vanquished city of Moscow in the time of Napoleon. In the closing chords one feels the dying sigh of spent fury, the hushed voice of its desolation.

The next two numbers were from Chopin. He is said to be the greatest genius of the piano who has ever lived. The "Butterfly Elude" as given is one of his very best. The "Nocturne" as the third number was very beautiful. In the writing of the Nocturne, a simple lyric piece, Chopin far excels all other writers. He has written in all nineteen nocturnes.

The third number was rightly named "Juglery." It was by Godard, a French composer of note. We were then given five numbers by our greatest American composer, MacDowell. "To every man," wrote MacDowell, "there come noble thoughts—thoughts that pass across his heart like great white birds." Such thoughts come often to MacDowell. He is said to be a poet expressing himself not in words but in tones and forms of music.

Tennyson's poem, "The Eagle," was read to more clearly bring out the picture which MacDowell expressed in the number. "The Eagle," also a poem from Sidney Lanier, "The Red Rose" to picture more clearly for us MacDowell's beautiful woodland sketch, "To a Wild Rose." The last number was by the composer Liszt. He is spoken of as the great master of piano forte. The number given was most charming and interesting.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed during which Mrs. Johnstone served delicious refreshments.

The program was:

1. Prelude, Op. 3, No. 2—Rachmaninoff

2. (a) Etude, Op. 25, No. 9—Chopin (Butterfly)

(b) Nocturne, Op. 62, No. 2—Chopin

3. Juglery—Godard

4. (a) "The Eagle"—MacDowell

(b) Polonaise—MacDowell

5. (a) "To a Wild Rose"—MacDowell

(b) "From Uncle Remus"—MacDowell

(c) "To a Waterlily"—MacDowell

6. Venezia e Napoli III—Tarnantella—Liszt ***

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME

Ed. Peters, the Travelingman, Was in the Grand Hotel at Fergus Falls Monday

WHEN CYCLONE TORE OFF ROOF

Lights Went Out, People Yelled, Hotel Collapsed and Rain Fell in Torrents

Ed. Peters, the well known travelingman of Brainerd, thought his time had surely come a week ago Monday night. He had retired to his room on the third floor of the Grand hotel at Fergus Falls and was about half asleep near midnight when there was a terrible commotion.

A cyclone had hit Fergus Falls. The roof of the hotel was carried off. The windows in Peters' room were blown in by the storm and collided with his bed. The back wall of the building is built of brick.

The lights went out and the guests in the hotel, or what was left of the Grand hotel, shrieked in unison. With a window sash about his head, Peters worked his way downstairs and into comparative safety.

Every telephone, electric light and telegraph wire in Fergus Falls was down. Outside the storm howled and the rain fell in torrents, over two inches falling in less than an hour. It was an awful night and Mr. Peters thought he was destined to make the trip to that bourn from which no traveler returneth and where one can get no return tickets.

The storm played some peculiar tricks. It lifted a barn from its foundation, blew it into the river and carried it up stream several blocks. 500 shade trees were leveled to the ground. Many roofs were blown off of houses and chimneys were an easy mark for the storm. Next day the insurance men did such a heavy business selling cyclone policies that they ran out of this style of insurance and had to get in a new lot.

ESDON ETCHINGS

Arthur Maghan and Eva Hunt were united in marriage the 10th of July at the home of the bride's father. We extend our congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life together.

Florence Hadgson is keeping house for her father this summer.

Geo. Blades is working at D. Archibald's at Bay Lake.

One of the Crowell's of Dykeman, has been working for John Hammett the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jabe are going to Frazer on a visit in a short time.

It is reported that Mott Hammett and Joe Gooler have been scrapping, but as they still live together and are apparently well and happy, we think possibly that someone has been drawing on their imagination a little.

The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Carson, of Bemidji, accidentally fell from the stage near the Dye farm and it was thought for a time that he was quite badly injured. Dr. Thabes was summoned who pronounced the child all right except a few slight cuts and bruises, and Mr. and Mrs. Carson continued on their way to Neutral to visit Mrs. Carson's uncle, Mr. T. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rosenkranz and three children of Hankinson, N. D., spent the week of the 4th in this locality visiting their many friends.

PINE KNOLL

Sam Hodgden, of Aitkin, was seen in this vicinity with his auto last Sunday.

The dance at Len Frantz's Saturday night was well attended. Several members of the "Noisy Bunch" were there and all report a fine time.

Alfred Zoerb and wife and Mr. Iverson and wife came over to the dance in a motor boat Saturday evening.

Mrs. Day called at Green's Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar Harrison and son spent a few days last week with her parents.

"KIDDO."

Lamb's Quaint Humor.

Charles Lamb once said that he hated a certain man.

"Do you know him?" Lamb was asked.

"No," he answered.

"Let me introduce you to him," said Lamb's friend.

"No," responded Lamb humorously, "for if I shall know him I am sure I shall stop hating him."

MELLIN'S HAS LARGEST SALE

"When my baby was three weeks old, I was taken with Typhoid Fever and had to raise him on the bottle. We tried many kinds of food. He was so weak he could not stand milk. He was nothing but a skeleton when he was born and weighed ten and one-half pounds when three months old. We went to a large drug store and asked what kind of baby food they sold the most of, and they told us Mellin's Food. I have used it ten weeks and now my baby weighs 23 pounds. He could not have lived much longer without Mellin's Food, and it was the only thing that agreed with him."

The Word "Expire."

"Expire" in its literal sense is breathing out. Inspiration and expiration together constitute respiration. Izaak Walton observed that "if the inspiring or expiring organ of any animal be stopped it suddenly dies." The Romans spoke of "breathing out" the breath of life instead of "dying" by way of euphemism, just as they said "visit" (he has lived) instead of "he is dead." In all languages the reluctance frankly to say "dead" or "die" appears; hence such words and phrases as "pass away," "decease," "demise," "the departed," "defunct," "the late," "no more," "if anything should happen to me."
